

Library FAQs

Will I have access to the library?

Only ATC Students, faculty and Staff will have access to the library. You must have your student ID with the current sticker in order to enter the library. The library hours will be posted on our webpage at <https://library.augustatech.edu/>

Will there be a limited number of people allowed in the library?

Yes, we must adhere to CDC guidelines. Face covering is required in our building.

Will I have access to the computers?

Access to the computers will be by appointment only. In order to schedule an appointment, please call the Augusta Campus at 706-771-4164 or 706-771-4165; Waynesboro Campus 706-437-6806 and Thomson Campus 706-595-0166.

Will the study rooms be available?

Study rooms are only available on the Augusta campus. Study rooms will be available by appointment only. Only one person will be allowed in the study room. You must check in at the front desk with your student ID in order to gain access. You can schedule a study room at <https://library.augustatech.edu/roombooking>.

Are walk-ins welcome?

Walk-ins are welcome; however, if we are at capacity, you will have to wait in accordance to CDC guidelines.

Can I check out books?

For the fall semester, the library will offer pick up by appointment services. Search our catalog at <https://library.augustatech.edu/>. Email us at library@augustatech.edu to submit your request. Once the items have been pulled, we will email you to make an appointment to pick up your items.

Who do I contact if I have question?

Ask a librarian is available during our normal hours of operation. We can also be reached on the Augusta Campus at 706-771-4164 or 706-771-4165; Waynesboro Campus 706-437-6806 and Thomson Campus 706-595-0166.

How do I access resources from off-campus?

Thousands of resources are available 24/7 on our webpage at <https://library.augustatech.edu/>.

- EBooks
- Database
- Journal articles
- Streaming videos

Are materials being quarantined upon return?

All materials will be quarantined up to 72 hours. This means that returned items may stay on your record for that period of time. Note, that any overdue fines generated during this time will be waived.

Is research assistance available?

Research assistance is available by appointment only. You can contact us through Ask a librarian, email or call. We can be reached on the Augusta Campus at 706-771-4164 or 706-771-4165; Waynesboro Campus 706-437-6806 and Thomson Campus 706-595-0166.

Are you open on weekends?

The Augusta Campus is open on Saturday 9am to 1pm, by appointment only. No walk-ins are allowed. Visit our website for more information at <https://library.augustatech.edu/>