- Students must request academic transcripts from all colleges attended.
- Your Georgia HOPE Scholarship eligibility cannot be evaluated without all prior college transcripts.
- Please note that all degree level work will be evaluated, even if it does not transfer into your program.
- Once your eligibility is evaluated, you will be notified via your SmartWeb e-mail.
- Students must be evaluated before the Georgia HOPE Scholarship is approved.

The calculation of your Georgia HOPE Scholarship cumulative GPA is determine by the following:

- All college credit hours attempted after high school graduation (hours attempted while seeking a degree) at all post-secondary institutions the student attended and their corresponding grades must be included in the HOPE cumulative GPA, regardless of what hours are accepted or not accepted by the institution the student is currently attending, if the course is repeated, if the course was "forgiven" by the institution, or if the student received a withdrawal grade for the course.
- Your Georgia HOPE Scholar eligibility will be determined once the grades are available for the term after you have attempted 30, 60, or 90 semester hours.
- You must have a 3.0 GPA or better at the end of the 30th, 60th, or 90th attempted semester hour to be eligible for the HOPE Scholarship.
